Australian Treats (desserts)

Aussie bakeries are known for their sweets just as much as their savories, and we're no exception. Take a gander at our collection of famous, traditional and original desserts.

Pavlova 2.30

As light and as delicate as the Russian ballet dancer it's named after, the 'Pav' is a meringue topped with fresh cream, strawberries and kiwi fruit. Stolen by New Zealand, it's considered Australia's national dessert.

Lamington 2.95

This all-time Aussie favorite is the invention of a chef to an early Queensland Governor, Lord Lamington. When asked to feed unexpected guests, the chef covered light sponge cake with chocolate and fine coconut. Great with a cup of tea or coffee.

Vanilla Slice 2.95

The typical Aussie version of a French Mille-feuille. Hand-made vanilla custard sandwiched between two sheets of our flakey pastry and covered with vanilla icing.

Cherry Ripe Slice 2.95

Australia's oldest chocolate bar is so loved by our nation that we've created a slice to match its famous taste. Whole maraschino cherries, condensed milk and coconut on a shortbread crust and topped with chocolate.

Hedgehog Slice 2.95

An old outback recipe from Down Under, this chocolate lovers dream could be called an Echidna Slice. Rich chocolate fudge combined with crunchy vanilla cookie pieces, give this slice its distinctive look.

Fruit Mince Pie (Tart/Slice) 1.55 / 2.95

Golden raisins and currants with a touch of sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg and a drop of sherry for luck all in a shortbread crust.

ANZAC Biscuit 1.50

Since WWI Aussie mothers have sent these sweet yet wholesome, crunchy oatmeal cookies, or biscuits as we call them, to their sons and daughters fighting overseas. The most fair-dinkum oatmeal cookie you'll ever eat.

English Pork Pie 5.50

Our Pommy pork pie (Aussies refer to the English as Poms) is a mix of minced pork and bacon with a dash of thyme and other seasonings in our short crust pastry.

The Australian Pasty

It is to vegetable lovers what a pie is to meat lovers.

Not to be confused with burlesque "pasties", the famed pasty was introduced by early Cornish settlers. Its shape comes from the clever Cornish creating a disposable 'pastry handle' for their miners dirty hands to hold.

Vegetable Pasty 5.40

A traditional combination of potatoes, carrots, onions, peas and corn with just the right amount of our special seasoning encased in our flaky Aussie pastry crust.

Traditional Cornish Pasty 5.40

This one comes with the handle and meat. USDA sirloin beef, potatoes, carrots, onions, peas, corn and seasoning, baked in our flaky pastry crust.
