

AUSTRALIAN BAKERY CAFE

Australian treats (desserts)

Aussie bakeries are known for their sweets just as much as their savories, and we're no exception. On offer is a collection of the famous, traditional and an original.

The famous Pavlova

Lamington

Vanilla & Cherry Ripe Slices

- Pavlova 1.99
As light and as delicate as the Russian ballet dancer it's named after, the 'Pav' is a meringue topped with fresh cream and strawberries. Stolen from New Zealand, it's considered Australia's national dessert.
- Lamington 2.65
The invention of a chef to an early Queensland Governor, Lord Lamington, who when asked to feed unexpected guests covered light sponge cake dipped in chocolate with fine coconut. Great with a cup of tea, morning or afternoon.
- Vanilla Slice 2.65
The typical Aussie version of a French Mille-feuille. Hand-made vanilla custard sandwiched between two sheets of our flaky pastry, covered with vanilla icing.
- Cherry Ripe Slice 2.65
Australia's oldest chocolate bar is so loved by our nation we've created a slice to match its famous taste. Chocolate and a center of whole maraschino cherries, condensed milk and coconut top a layer of our shortbread crust.
- Hedgehog Slice 2.65
An old country recipe from down-under, this chocolate lovers dream should perhaps be called an 'Echidna Slice'. Rich chocolate fudge combined with crunchy cookie flecks give the slice its distinctive look.
- Fruit Mince Pie (Tart / Slice) 1.25 / 2.65
Golden raisins, currants, an a touch of sherry for luck in a shortbread crust.
- Anzac Biscuit 1.25
Since WWI Aussie mothers have sent these sweet, yet wholesome, crunchy oatmeal cookies, or biscuits as we call them, to their sons fighting overseas.
